Less urgency than I thought in your reply, since I've found some more material about him from earlier notes and will use that. But when you get a chance, would be good to know if I'm right to assume he was a bit older than you when you both joined the sayeret. Also, I'm assuming that before joining Mishmar Ha Tzevai in the south, he had done tironut somewhere (with that unit, or another part of the army)?
Thanks and best
Ned
